DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC OPEN HOUSE

An open house, sponsored by the Department of Music, will be held during the day and evening of Monday, 28 March. It presents a fine opportunity for students, staff, and public to observe and enjoy the activities of the Department and to sample normal classes.

Part One is scheduled from 12:15 p.m. to 4 p.m. Visitors will be welcomed by Professor Thomas Rolston, coordinator of the event; Jean Lauber, Associate Vice-President (Academic); George Baldwin, Dean of the Faculty of Arts; and Robert Stangeland, Chairman of the Department of Music.

In the main hall entrance there will be several works performed including Palestrina's "Exultate Deo," and Malcolm Forsyth's "Fanfare for Brass." From 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. there will be a continuous concert by student solo and ensemble performers with introductions by Professors Arthur Crighton, Brian Harris, and Michael Roeder. Works performed will include the first movement of Schumann's Quintet in E flat for piano and strings, the "Airs Chantes" of Poulenc, and "Den es Gehet dem Menschen, wie dem Vieh" and "Ich Wandte Mich" from Brahms's Four Serious Songs. Other selections will include works by Bartok, Handel, Beethoven, and Stein.

In the afternoon, guests are invited to attend normal classes taking place at regular times. Allan Bell and Robert Rosen, both students of the composition class of Violet Archer and Malcolm Forsyth, will present a discussion and performance of two compositions. One will be approached through the use of the more traditional techniques while the other will be analyzed through improvisation. Alexandra Munn will teach art song interpretation, Ernest Dalwood will coach a small wind ensemble, and there will be a wind and percussion pedagogy class, an opera workshop, a concert choir rehearsal, and a beginning chamber music class.

Part Two will begin at 8:00 p.m. Three concerts have been planned. The First canto: A Work for theatre is an innovative piece that weds the expressive complexities of mime with the sonorous textures of the cello. The mime was created by Gloria Perks of the Department of Drama, and Deborah Skelton will perform The First Canto along with Claude Kenneson who will perform the Suite for Cello by Benjamin Britten. The University of Alberta Concert Choir, under the direction of Larry Cook, will also perform Vaughn Williams's "Lord thou has been our refuge"; Johannes Brahms's "O süßer Main" and "Fahr wohl!"; and the "Newfoundland outport song" arranged by Harry Somers. Finally, there will be a performance of Handel's Concerto Grosso, Op. 6, No. 6, and the allegro of Mozart's Piano Concerto in C minor, K. 491, with Sylvia Shadick, pianist.

J.D. MUIR RESEARCH FUND GRANTS ANNOUNCED

The Faculty of Business Administration and Commerce has announced the awarding of the first two grants from the recently established J.D. Muir Research Fund. The Fund, honoring the late J.D. Muir, who died shortly before assuming the position of Dean of the Faculty, was established to encourage research contributing to the improvement of management performance as it relates either to Canada or East Africa.

Money for the Fund comes from a portion of the overhead allowance on a Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) contract with the University, relating to the Faculty's project to develop and improve the Commerce Faculty at the University of Nairobi in Kenya. Approximately $47,500 will be provided over a four-year period to allow for grants to any full-time member of the Faculty of Business Administration and Commerce wishing to do research in the appropriate field.

The grantees are selected by a committee consisting of members of the Faculty's Research and Workshop Committee plus two outside members from related departments—S. Beveridge, Chairman of the Research and Workshop Committee, T. Daniel, and B. Korkie, as well as H. Northcott of the Department of Sociology and B. Wilkinson of the Department of Economics. The first grantees of the J.D. Muir Research Fund are Rodney Schneck, Professor, and S.P. Singh, Associate Professor. Dr. Schneck has been awarded $3,450 to carry out research on the "Relationship of nursing technology to structured and behavioral variables." Dr. Singh was awarded an initial grant of $500 to investigate "The contribution of the petroleum industry to Alberta's economic growth."

BOYCOTT OF SOUTH AFRICAN PRODUCTS

The Apartheid Boycott Coalition of Edmonton has begun a community-wide boycott of South African products, including liquors, wines, and beers, and food and tobacco products. The Coalition has set up information pickets outside both ALCB outlets and selected grocery stores in an effort to alert Canadians to the products that help keep apartheid the way of life in South Africa. While many people recognize that products such as Paarl wines are South African, they are not always aware of the extent to which South African products are available in Canada: the sale of Carling O'Keefe products for example, and Rothman's products (including Craven and Consulate cigarettes), as well as many tinned fruits keep the South African economy, and apartheid strong. Alternative brands are easily accessible, and a boycott with full public participation can be effective.

The boycott of South Africa was initiated by the United Nations and by the black people of South Africa and has many supporters internationally. Here, supporters include the Alberta Federation of Labour, the New Democratic Party, CUSO, and numerous other organizations. The Canadian government has condemned apartheid but it has not yet acted on its words.

When two representatives of the African National Congress (South Africa) visited the University recently they offered assurance that the boycott would in no way have a detrimental effect on the living and working conditions of the black majority in South Africa. Kate Molale, one of the representatives, said that when Canadians use the products of South Africa, they should be aware that they are using the products of slavery. Black South Africans, she said, welcome a thorough boycott as a contribution toward their liberation.

For further information about South African products available in Canada, or about the boycott, contact the Apartheid Boycott Coalition, Box 422, University of Alberta.

PEOPLE

■ Eugene Egert, Associate Professor of Germanic Languages, presented a paper on "Sir Kay in Chrétien's and Harman's Erec" at the meeting of the Medieval Association of the Pacific in Los Angeles on 25 February.

■ Willard F. Reese, Professor of Elementary Education, has had an article entitled "The personal pronoun trap" published in the February issue of Science and Children, a journal of the National Science Teacher's Association of the United States.

■ Charles H. Davis, Professor and Dean of the Faculty of Library Science, attended recent meetings of the American Library Association and the Association of American Library Schools, both of which are North American in scope. Dr. Davis was reappointed Chairman of the Research Committees of the AALS and the ALA Library Education Division.

- James Balderson, Assistant Professor of Educational Administration, has had a paper entitled "Traditionalism, progressivism, and preference for the 'good' school" published in Administrator's Notebook 25(3).
- J. Brian McQuitty, Professor of Agricultural Engineering, has been appointed Associate Dean (Planning and Development) of the Faculty of Agriculture and Forestry, effective 1 April. Professor McQuitty will have primary responsibility for planning and space allocation of on-campus facilities and will also coordinate the development of off-campus facilities for the Faculty.
- Aileen Wright, Administrative Professional Officer and Assistant Professor of Library Science, and Charles Davis, Professor and Dean of Library Science, attended a conference on Canadian Libraries in Their Changing Environment, which took place in Toronto from 24 to 26 February. The conference was the most extensive examination of Canadian librarianship at the national level in recent years.
- H. Clifton Young, Associate Professor in the Department of Marketing and Economic Analysis, addressed members of the Hudson's Bay Company Junior Executive Program on 1 March. His talk was entitled "Understanding the impact of the changing environment on managers."

- Roger A. Shiner, Associate Professor of Philosophy, was invited to address the Seventh Annual Philosophy Colloquium at California State University, Fullerton. The topic of this year's meeting was "The understanding of art." Dr. Shiner also presented a paper to the Philosophy Department at California State University, Long Beach.
- A.H. Qureshi, Professor of English, presented a seminar on "Modern trends and prospects in literature" to a joint session of staff and students of the English Department, Murray College, Sialkot, Pakistan.
- Agnes Yu, Graduate Student in Educational Psychology, has an article entitled "Counselling of minority clients in our schools" published in the current edition of Education for the Disadvantaged Child.
- Pierre A.R. Monod, Associate Professor in Department of Romance Languages, was a guest speaker at the South Eastern Convention of Teachers held in Lethbridge on 24 February. His topic was "Articulation between matriculation French and first-year university courses: a study based on lexical and syntactic errors."
- C.M. Rodkiewicz, Professor of Mechanical Engineering, has been awarded the Highest Golden Decoration and the Associated Certificate of Merit of the Canadian Polish

Congress for his outstanding service to the community.

- J.J. Mitchell, Associate Professor of Educational Psychology, recently returned from New York where he addressed the United States National Commission on Resources for Youth. Professor Mitchell's writings have been instrumental in the Commission's national youth policy. He also has articles in the current issues of Adolescence and the PAA Newsletter.
- Eugene W. Ratsoy, Professor of Educational Administration, was elected to the Executive Committee of the University Council for Educational Administration (UCEA) at a recent meeting. UCEA is a private non-profit corporation whose goal is to improve the professional preparation of administrative personnel in education through both continuing education and pre-service programs. UCEA's membership consists of major universities from throughout the US and Canada, and it fulfills its goal through the cooperative efforts of the member universities, which contribute both human and material resources to various interinstitutional projects. This University is one of three Canadian members in UCEA; the others are UBC and the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE).
- W. Ray Salt, Professor Emeritus of Anatomy, was recently awarded the second annual Loran L. Goulden Memorial Award by the Edmonton Natural History Club for his outstanding work on the natural history of Alberta, especially in the field of ornithology. Dr. Salt is the senior author of the revised edition of Birds of Alberta, which was written by him and his son, Jim R. Salt.

VISITORS

- In the past while, the Theoretical Physics Institute has had a number of visitors who delivered seminars and lectures. L. Trainor of the Department of Physics at the University of Toronto spoke on "Group theory and many-body diagrams" on 16 February. R. Enns of Simon Fraser University gave a talk on "Nonlinear light scattering" on 16 March. H. Fröhlich of the University of Liverpool spoke on "An extension of electrodynamics" on 21 March. On 23 March, G. Leibbrandt of the University of Guelph gave a seminar on "Solitons and the sine-Gordon equations."
- G.E. Johnson, Professor and Head of the Department of Pharmacology at the University of Saskatchewan, was the Medical Research Council Visiting Professor to the Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences on 14 and 15 March. Dr. Johnson presented an undergraduate lecture entitled "The pharmacists' dilemma—many new products, few new drugs" and two seminars entitled "The Saskatchewan Prescription Drug Plan" and "Products of concern for the Saskatchewan Prescription Drug Plan."

BOOKS

- Ivan L. Rudnytsky, Professor of History, has edited the recently published Lysty Osypa Nazaruka do Viacheslava Lypynskoho (The Letters of Osyp Nazaruk to Viacheslav Lypynski). This is Volume 7 of the Lypynsky Archives and is published by the East European Research Institute of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
- Roger A. Shiner, Associate Professor of Philosophy, and John King-Farlow, Professor of Philosophy, have coedited New Essays on Plato and the Pre-Socratics, published by the University of Alberta Press. Among the contributors from Canada, Australia, Britain, and the US is Richard N. Bosley, Professor of Philosophy. Several of the papers included in the book were given at an international Conference organized by Professor Shiner and held here in 1974.
- L.A. Kosinski, Professor of Geography, has edited Demographic Developments in Eastern Europe, which was recently published by Praeger Publishers of New York. The book is derived from the First International Slavic Conference held in Banff in September 1974; the preparation of the book was aided by an editorial grant from the University.

NOTICES

HOOKED RUGS AT UNIVERSITY GALLERY

The folk art tradition of hooked rug design developed in Quebec and the Maritimes in the mid-nineteenth century. Women usually designed and made these rugs themselves, portraying familiar flowers, animals, and landscapes. In the early rugs, rags and homespun wool were dyed with vegetable colors, lending a wonderful harmony of shading and texture.

The Canadian Museum of Carpets and Textiles of Toronto has organized an exhibition of some of these rugs. It was assembled with an International Women's Year grant and is touring nationally. The exhibition is now at the University Art Gallery and Museum and can be seen Tuesday and Wednesday between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m., Thursday between 11 a.m. and 9 p.m., and Sunday between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. The University Art Gallery is located in Ring House One, situated south of the Faculty Club off Saskatchewan Drive.

SUMMER PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN

The Department of Elementary Education will have two programs for children this summer. Both will begin on Monday, 1 July and end on Thursday, 11 August and will be held in the Elementary Education Children's House (Ring House Three, across from the Faculty Club). The first program is for children from about three years of age to about five and one-half years; the second is for children from about four and one-half years to about seven. For further information and application forms contact Susan Therrien, Department of Elementary Education, telephone 432-4273. The deadline for applications is 15 April.

ADVANCED FRENCH CONVERSATION CLASS

An advanced French conversation class, to include discussion of current events, exercises in style and vocabulary, and introduction to the works of some French writers (including Gide, Camus, and Giraudoux), is being planned for Tuesday evenings from 8:15 p.m. to 10:15 p.m. For further information or to register, telephone Nicole Kunzle, 435-4467.

CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY LECTURER

The Canadian Cancer Society Guest Lecturer this year is Gianni Bonadonna of the Institute Nazionale Tumori in Milan, Italy. Professor Bonadonna will speak on "Adjuvant chemotherapy of early breast cancer" on 5 April at 4:30 p.m. in TL-11 Tory Building.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL BILINGUAL FRENCH PROGRAMS

The Edmonton Public School Board is offering Bilingual French Programs at the kindergarten and grades one and two levels. Registration for the 1977-78 programs will be accepted in Duggan, Greenfield, Holyrood (kindergarten and grade one only), McKee, Laurier Heights, and Richard Secord Schools; other schools may be added in response to parental interest. New programs may also be started in the 1977-78 school year at grades four and seven levels, if there is sufficient interest. For further information telephone 429-5621, extension 257, or 434-0036.

RED CROSS BLOOD DONOR CLINIC

The Recreation Students' Society and the Red Cross Society are holding a blood donor clinic on 1 April from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in 142 Students' Union Building.

CANADA COUNCIL GRANT FOR UNIVERSITY JOURNAL

The Canada Council has announced a new grant of $24,348 for the 1977 operations of the Canadian Review of Comparative Literature/Revue Canadienne de Littérature Comparée, which is housed at this University. Published by the University of Toronto Press on behalf of the Canadian Comparative Literature Association, the journal is edited by M.V. Dimic, Professor of Comparative Literature; the editorial secretary is E.D. Blodgett, Chairman of the Department of Comparative Literature; J. Fettafé, also of that Department, and E.J.H. Greene, Professor of Romance Languages, are members of the Advisory Board and the Editorial Committee respectively. Specimen copies of the journal may be obtained from the editor, 222 Arts Building, telephone 432-2459.

SINGLE PARENTS ON CAMPUS

At the next meeting of Single Parents on Campus, on 28 March at 7:30 p.m., Don Davies, counsellor and educator, will speak on the topic "Being somebody—alone." The meeting will be held in 14-14 Tory Building, and interested single parents are invited to attend.

NON-CREDIT COURSESWOMEN IN MANAGEMENT

A seminar for women who wish to develop their managerial skills will be held 27 to 29 April. The seminar will seek to identify and explore the issues women face in management, assess and practise essential managerial skills and the latest techniques available for managers, and provide a suitable environment for problem solving that may be unique to women in the performance of their managerial roles.

Early registration is advised because enrolment will be limited to thirty participants. The fee is $165 including all materials and luncheons. The registration deadline is 15 April and registrations are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. Additional information is available by calling 432-5066.

ELEMENTS OF SUPERVISION

Supervisory effectiveness will be examined in a one-half day seminar to be held 29 April. The seminar should be of interest to organizational training and development personnel, personnel officers at all levels, managers, and supervisors. Among the topics to be covered are styles of leadership and breaking the delegation barrier.

Registrations are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee is $40 including materials. Seminar hours are from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Additional information is available by calling 432-5066.

MOTIVATION AND PRODUCTIVITY AND THE EFFECTIVE EXECUTIVE

Two seminars of interest to managers have been scheduled for this spring by the Faculty of Extension.

The seminar, Motivation and Productivity, will be held 22 April from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. The focus of this seminar will be on how to apply motivation theories to practical situations and how to achieve results. Films to be shown during this seminar are Understanding Motivation, Human Nature and Organizational Realities, and Motivation Through Job Enrichment.

On 6 May a one-half day seminar will be held on The Effective Executive. In order to examine this side of the productivity question, three films will be shown: Managing Time, Effective Decisions, and Staffing for Strength.

Registrations for both seminars are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee for both is $60 including materials. The fee for one seminar is $35 including materials. For additional information, telephone 432-5066.

SPRING CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

The Faculty of Extension is offering three courses this spring which apply to two Certificate Programs, the Management Development Program and the Personnel Administration Program.

The courses are Business Organization and Administration, Canadian Economic Development, and Personnel Administration. Each course will run Mondays and Thursdays from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. beginning 2 May and running through 30 June.

The fee per course is $150 and includes textbooks and materials. The registration deadline is 20 April. Students requiring complete information on the Certificate Programs, their objectives, and entrance requirements, or information on the three courses being offered should telephone 432-3027 or 432-5545.

COMPUTER PROGRAMMING PROGRAM

One course in the Computer Programming Program will be given this spring. Computer Fundamentals is a prerequisite for all other courses in the Program and it will be held Tuesday evening from 26 April to 28 June. Class hours will be from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

This course is a basic introduction to the concept of computers and the computing industry. In the Program, students may concentrate on either the scientific (FORTRAN) language stream or the business (COBOL) language stream.

For additional information on Computer Fundamentals or the Program itself, telephone 432-3027. The fee for Computer Fundamentals is $110 including textbooks and materials. Applications must be received by 15 April.

SPIRES WORKSHOP

Computing Services is offering a workshop on SPIRES, the Stanford Public Information Retrieval System. The three-hour workshop will be an introduction to searching, updating, and editing files under SPIRES.

The course will be offered 9 a.m. to 12 noon on 22 April and again on 6 May. The course is free but enrolment is limited to seventeen persons. The MTS and Editor Fundamentals course is a prerequisite although the course is open to those individuals who have the ability to use terminals well.

SURPLUS EQUIPMENT LISTING

The equipment listed below has been declared surplus. If your department is interested in any of this surplus equipment, please get in touch with the declaring department and arrange a satisfactory price. Once you have arrived at a price, make up a purchase requisition showing the account to be charged, and forward the requisition to the Purchasing Department. Arrangements for the transfer will then be made.

All departments are encouraged to dispose of surplus equipment. This disposal is accomplished by completing a surplus equipment declaration form and forwarding it to the Purchasing Department. Proceeds from such disposals are normally credited to the accounts from which the equipment was originally purchased; however, this not not always the case. For further information and details on the disposal of surplus equipment, telephone Bonnie O'Dwyer or Roy Bennett at 432-3208.
